Description

Hat Kid is back in the first DLC for A Hat in Time, Seal the Deal!

New Timepieces have been detected! Climb aboard the SS. Literally Can't Sink just in time for departure on an Arctic Cruise! There's always more to do when running a cruise ship, and you're in charge of keeping everything ship shape while also looking for your lost timepieces!

When you're done cooling off in the Arctic, it's time to return to your ship where Snatcher has made himself at home. Oh No! It looks like he's brought a ton of new contracts with him! Take on his challenges and collect death wish stamps you can redeem for prizes!

Note: Death Wish is exceptionally, brutally difficult. Please beware

Note: The Arctic Cruise requires 35 Time Pieces to access. Death Wish requires 27 Time Pieces to access.

Features

- A new difficult mode: Death Wish!
- An all-new chapter: The Arctic Cruise
- A ton of outfits, flairs, dyes and even camera filters!

Gears for Breakfast

Gears for Breakfast began as a small team setting out to make a game inspired by the games we grew up with.

Our mission is to produce unique and captivating experiences to any person who plays a game from Gears for Breakfast. We are a global company in the truest sense of the word, with members working from across the world. This collection of skill and talent brings us perspectives from a variety of cultures and backgrounds.
